

Group 1 News

Sometimes there is just too much to talk about!
This term may be quickly coming to an end though it has been jammed full of exciting experiences.

Netty dropped by to see our painting in its resting place and even had time to read one of her books, Natemba to us.

Our progressive lunch was a hit and a lot of work was put into decorating, cooking and serving, not to mention cleaning. The children had a ball and were very happy to serve our own home grown Kale!

We had a lovely session thinking about people that live with a disability. The children were challenged to complete an everyday task without the use of different limbs or senses. As they tried to complete the task we chatted about how everyone has different challenges, leading up to watching the ad for the Paralympics (If you have not seen it please take some time to watch it here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=locLkk3aYlk>)

We had a visit from Callum in group 2 who conducted an investigation into tectonic plates using rice crackers in tomato sauce! Needless to say it was a hit!

Snack Attack has been a part of Kinma for a very long time...and how wonderful for the children to have their parents come in and fill the air with a good home-cooked meal. There have been some amazing foods and traditional goodies that parents have become loved and famous for.

There are 64 children in the Primary and 28 in Preschool, approx. 10 adults on Wednesdays. We have 17 gluten-free, 10 dairy-free children, and 3 vegetarians. If your child is any or all of these 3, please let me know.

Usually we have 2-3 parents that come in on a Wednesday and one makes the Main and the other Dessert...or you do it all together on the day. It is a great way to meet and get to know the parents of Kinma and spend the day with the children.

Like everything at Kinma it is a very relaxed easy day. There are not many rules, all we ask is for it not to be too junky and offer vegetarian, dairy-free and gluten-free options.

The kids really enjoy Snack attack, and it's great when we can make Snack Attack happen every week. Below are the dates for Term 2 Snack Attack.

PLEASE REMEMBER – We do not use nuts or nut products anywhere at Kinma.
